FMA WORLD Festival
Season 9, 2018

The event

Filipino Martial Arts World Festival was organized to promote the art worldwide, introduce and upgrade the knowledge of every practitioners through learning from different internationally known and high caliber FMA Instructors in one event.

Through the initiative and dedication of Grandmaster Dieter Knuettel and Alfred Plath of Deutscher Arnis Verband, the 1st and 2nd Festival was successfully held in Germany in 2002 and 2004 respectively. It was then through the mutual interest of DAV and IMAFP the Filipino Martial Art Event was brought back to its homeland, the Philippines. The 3rd festival was held in 2006 in Tagaytay, Philippines spearheaded by GM Rene Tongson as the Chairman and the IMAFP team lead by Chairman Atty. Buddy Demaisip. Then onwards the history goes on along with the dedicated/untiring organizing team.

The main aim of the event is to showcase the expertise of the local and foreign FMA grandmasters and give an opportunity for practitioners to train with different grandmasters, explore the beauty of the island, experience the Filipino culture and understand the roots of the art in one event.

The Venue

As part of organizer's initiative to promote Philippine Tourism, the 9th FMA World Festival will be held in the island of Panglao, Bohol, Philippines. The island of Bohol is the perfect place for those who are wishing to get away from the hustle and bustle of the city, showcasing the famous land formation of the chocolate hills to the fine beach of Panglao Island.

How to get there:

By Air – Tagbilaran Airport serves the island of Bohol and is about a 30 minute to 1 hour from the airport to Panglao Island depending on your mode of transportation choice. There are currently no international flights going directly to Bohol as the airport is not an international airport. Connecting flights from Manila or Cebu to Bohol would be the best option for international visitors. Local airlines flying to and from Bohol are:-

Airlines	MNL to Bohol	Bohol to MNL
Phil. Airlines:	09:20am; 14:20pm	11:15am; 16:40pm
Cebu Pacific:	06:00am; 08:25am; 13:00pm	07:55am; 10:20am; 14:55pm
Air Asia:	08:25am; 11:35am;	09:35am; 13:40pm; 13:40pm

Note: schedules are for reference only of the number of flights and may change depending on the airline schedule.

By Land – Travelling by land in and around Bohol can be accomplished by jeepney, taxi, habal habal (motorbike with driver) or tricycle. Cost of from tagbilaran to Panglao is approximately 500 pesos depending on the mode of transportation you choose.

By Sea – There are many options to travel by sea to Bohol from other locations within the country. The regular ferries are the least expensive and most common way to get around by the sea.

There are also fast craft available to cut down your travel time considerably for a higher price. Tagbilaran wharf /tourist Pier in the South near Panglao island is the main port with Tubigon in the West and Talibon in the North also available.

The Resort

Dumaluan Beach Resort is a modest and perfect place found to cater the whole event, from the accommodation, training area, function and the fine beach of the island to relax and enjoy water sports activities at free time and for those non-training participants. Visit: www.dumaluanbeach.com
